Remembrance Service

This morning, the whole school walked up to St. Oswald's and gathered round the war memorial for the Remembrance Service. Then we admired all the poppies we made on display in the church. After that, Class 4 walked up to Private Halton's plaque to lay a wreath. Check the blog on the school website.

Indoor Athletics event at Carnforth High School

A group of Class 3 children attended this afternoon's Indoor Athletics event at Carnforth High School. This is the first School Sports Partnership event of this academic year. Watch out for more information in next week's newsletter!

Key Stage 2 visit to the Buddhist Temple

On Wednesday, Class 3 and Class 4 visited the Buddhist Temple at Ulverston. The children really enjoyed their trip, their highlights were experiencing the peace and tranquillity of the temple for themselves and participating in a meditation. This visit has been part of a one week focus on learning about Buddhism.

Light Up Lancaster

You may have noticed the rather large bird lantern that has appeared in the main entrance! This is Class 3's bird lantern that they made with the artist, Anna Read before half-term. The lantern was displayed with the children's poetry at last weekend's Light Up Lancaster event. The majority of Class 3 took their families to view the lantern and poems for themselves. Everyone was very impressed! Mr McGurk visited with his family and thought the bird looked amazing! He heard other people commenting about how much they enjoyed reading the children's poems. Well done to everyone in Class 3! The AONB are planning to repeat their involvement in Light Up Lancaster and we have already agreed to take part.

New website

Apologies for the delay in sorting out your individual log ins for the new website. We promise to get them to you next week! Then you will be able to access our School Spider communication platform for parents as part of the website.
