Enjoying the panto!

Yesterday the whole school went off to The Dukes Theatre in Lancaster to watch the pantomime 'Peter Pan'. The children (and adults!) thoroughly enjoyed the performance! The children were complimented on the high standard of their behaviour by the accompanying parents, staff and the coach drivers. Well done everybody! Thank you to all those parent volunteers who joined us.

Christingle making

Today Father Robin, Reverend Emma and some helpful parents joined the children to get involved in creating 150 Christingles ready for this Sunday's joint service at St. Oswald's. Watch out for Miss Watson's blog on the school website.

The Inn-spectors Tickets

Mrs Robinson has organised tickets for both this year's Christmas performances in Warton Methodist Church. You should have received a text to collect your ordered tickets from the School Office. There are currently no more tickets available for the Wednesday evening performance and only a few left for the Thursday afternoon performance. If you find that you have tickets you don't need please return them to Mrs Robinson as soon as possible so that they can be used by someone else. Please note that we cannot admit anyone without a ticket, however there may be standing room but we will only know this once we have everyone seated. If anything changes or more tickets become available Mrs Robinson will text to let you know.
