The Inn-spectors

This week's performances of 'The Inn-spectors' have been a real treat and received rave reviews! The children were a credit to both their families and the school. They have all worked so hard to perfect their acting and singing. Fifty children had roles on stage, while the remaining fifty-seven children were the choir – a real team effort! Mr McGurk directed the performance focusing on the fifty stage performers; Miss Fearon was the Musical Director teaching all the songs and actions; Mrs McKinley, Mrs Spencer and Ms Wareing have created costumes, sourced props and generally organised children to be in the right place at the right time! Many thanks to them for working with the children to create such an outstanding performance! Thank you to Reverend Emma and all at Warton Methodist Church for letting us use their lovely building. Thank you to all those parents, grandparents, siblings and other family members and friends for joining us and for all your very positive feedback! THANK YOU to all our brilliant children for creating such a wonderful performance!
